

CONCERTS IN ST CHAD'S

Thursday 3 June 7.30pm

A Concert given by the world-famous choir – 'The Sixteen' under their conductor Harry Christophers. This concert is part of The Sixteen's nationwide pilgrimage around many prestigious venues. The event is sponsored by The Shropshire Music Trust.

Saturday 12 June 7.30pm

'Music for Royal Occasions' presented by Shrewsbury Cantata Choir directed by David Leeke. This concert includes music by Handel, Parry and Walton.

Saturday 19 June 7.30pm

A Concert presented by Shrewsbury Choral Society directed by Martin Schellenberg.

Wednesday 11 June 7.30pm

A Concert in aid of SAAFA presented by The Band of the Royal Engineers who will also be playing over the following two days at Shrewsbury Flower Show.

Saturday 6 November 7.30pm

The Phoenix Singers of Shrewsbury present Brahms' German Requiem under their conductor, John Naylor.

Saturday 27 November 7.30pm

Shrewsbury Cantata Choir under their conductor, David Leeke, present a concert of music from France with works by Durufle and Faure.

Saturday 4 December 7.30pm

St Chad's own Chamber Choir, Darwin Voices present a concert of music for Advent and Christmas under their conductor, David Leeke. A rich variety of music of all styles.

Tuesday 7 December 7.30pm

World-famous choir Ex Cathedra return again to present their own particular magical portrayal of Christmas

Saturday 11 December 7.30pm

A Christmas Concert presented by The Phoenix Singers of Shrewsbury

Saturday 18 December 7.30pm

A Christmas Concert presented by Shrewsbury Cantata Choir